Section VI: Complementary information

- VI.1) Information about recurrence
This is a recurrent procurement: no
- VI.2) Information about European Union funds
The contract is related to a project and/or programme financed by European Union funds: no
- VI.3) Additional information
1. The envisaged procurement procedure shall be governed by the Decision of the European Central Bank of 3.7.2007 laying down the rules on procurement (ECB/2007/5).

2. Special conditions for participation: tenderers must hold a valid licence for T2S connectivity services — granted by Banca d'Italia — to provide connectivity services to the Target2-Securities platform for the exchange of data using the functionalities of the platform.

3. The documentation for this procurement procedure can be downloaded from an Internet platform. If you are interested in participating, please register via the Internet platform using the following Internet address:

Internet address: <https://www.ecb.europa.eu/secure/procurement/>

User ID: 29034/IS/INO/2014

Password: E2DE7C

After having registered, an e-mail will be sent to you with a new user name and password. The Internet address will remain the same. Please use the new user name and password to download the procurement documentation.

Should you experience any problems in accessing the Internet platform for registration and/or downloading the procurement documentation please do not hesitate to contact us under the following e-mail address: procurement@ecb.europa.eu quoting the procurement number '29034/IS/INO/2014' and describing the problem experienced.

4. The tender procedure shall be open on equal terms to all natural or legal persons resident or located in the European Union and to all natural and legal persons resident or located in a country which has ratified the World Trade Organisation Agreement on Government Procurement or has concluded with the European Union a bilateral agreement on procurement under the conditions laid down in the said agreements.

5. The ECB shall exclude tenderers that are in one of the situations described in Article 24(4) of Decision ECB/2007/5 (e.g. conviction for fraud or corruption) or put on a blacklist in accordance with Article 24(7) of Decision ECB/2007/5. The ECB may exclude tenderers that are in one of the situations described in Article 24(5) of Decision ECB/2007/5 (e.g. insolvency; grave professional misconduct; misrepresentation).

6. Further information about ECB procurement rules and procedures may be obtained at: <http://www.ecb.europa.eu/ecb/jobsproc/tenders/html/index.en.html>

7. The ITT describes how tenderers have to prepare and submit their offers (see Chapter II–III), describes the evaluation and award process (see Chapter IV), explains how the ECB will inform the tenderers about the outcome of the procedure (Chapter V) and lays down general rules to be observed by all tenderers (Chapter VI). The tender specifications (Annex 1 to the ITT) describe the ECB's functional and technical requirements and it is at the same time a questionnaire, the basis of the technical offer that will help the tenderers to compile their technical offers and will help the ECB to assess the offers received. The tender specifications will form an integral part of the contract, together with the tender submitted by the successful tenderer. The draft contract (Annex 2 to the ITT) specifies the ECB's legal terms and conditions for the performance of the contract. It will form the basis for the contractual relationship with the successful tenderer. The tender submission form (Annex 3 to the ITT) is a questionnaire to be completed and signed by tenderers in order to assess their eligibility to participate in this procedure and their capacity to perform the contract. The price table (Annex 4 to the ITT) is a table that tenderers shall use to submit their financial offer. Annex 5 is the ECB's service level agreement that specifies the required service levels for the maintenance and support services. It will form an integral part of the contractual relationship with the successful tenderer.
