- II.1.4) Short description:
The European Central Bank (ECB) fulfils this mandate together with the 19 national central banks (NCBs) of the Member States whose currency is the euro (the 'Eurosystem'). In addition, the ECB together with all the central banks of the EU countries (both Euro and non-Euro countries) forms the European System of Central Banks

(the ESCB). Since 2014, the ECB is also entrusted with the task of banking supervision within the European Union to ensure the stability of the banking system. This is conducted by the Single Supervisory Mechanism (SSM) which consists of the ECB and the national competent authorities (NCAs) of the participating countries. To support the fulfilment of these mandates, the decision-making bodies of the ECB has endorsed the implementation of an ESCB and SSM learning and development strategy consisting of three pillars: leadership competencies, general behavioural competencies and technical competencies. This procurement is focused on technical competencies.

II.2.4) Description of the procurement:

This procurement is focused on training related to technical competencies. More specifically, through this procurement, the ECB seeks to identify a supplier who together with the ECB, shall create and deliver an ESCB & SSM Flagship Programme the main objectives of which will be to:

- create an EU-wide training programme in which central bankers and banking supervisors can learn technical topics relevant to current and future developments in the areas of central banking and banking supervision;
- counteract 'knowledge silos' by fostering knowledge sharing and a more fluid transfer and exchange of knowledge among the participants and, hence, across the different functions in which they work;
- enhance, promote and facilitate networking across the ESCB and the SSM.

The ECB has awarded one framework agreement for a duration of 4 years, which can be extended to a maximum of another 4 years.
