

Bond Market Contact Group

Frankfurt, Tuesday 9 October 2018 (13:00-17:00 CET, Sonnemannstraße 20, room C2.04)

FINAL AGENDA

1) Bond market outlook

Frederic Lasry (BNPP) will review the main bond market developments over the past quarter and provide an outlook for the year-end.

2) Electronic trading in bond markets & MiFiD2

Garry Naughton (Goldman Sachs) and Enrico Bruni (Tradeweb) will review the latest developments in electronic trading in euro area bond markets. In particular, they will analyse the impact of MiFiD II on electronic trading.

3) An update on the impact of Brexit

Paul Richards (ICMA) and Kevin Gaynor (Nomura) will review the preparations for the UK's exit from the European Union. They will present the extent to which preparations already changed the euro area bond market and what changes can be expected in the near future. In addition they will highlight the bond market challenges that are still unresolved ahead of the expected exit date in 2019.
